Things That Differ: Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, and Pastor-Teachers. When Paul was writing to the church at Ephesus and teaching them concerning the Church as the Body of Christ, he wrote of those who were gifts to the Church and said that the risen and exalted Christ had given “ the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the shepherds and teachers ” (Eph 4:11 ESV ).

Things That Differ: Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, and ...
The pastor is now building on the foundation that the apostles and prophets laid. Like the prophet, the pastor is local; but unlike the prophet, he does not get direct revelation. A pastor doesn ’ t need it because today we have the Bible. A pastor takes the revelation of God and makes it practical to a local congregation so that the congregation can be built by protecting and feeding the flock.

The Spiritual Gifts. Some spiritual gifts are presented where the person is not distinguished from their function. This can be understood in the spiritual gifts of evangelist, pastor and teacher. Since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, each of us is to exercise them accordingly: if prophecy, according to the proportion of his faith; if service, in his serving; or he who teaches, in his teaching; or he who exhorts, in his exhortation; he who gives, with liberality ...

description of the ministries of apostles and prophets in the contemporary church. John P. Lathrop is a graduate of Zion Bible College and Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary. He is an Ordained Minister with the International Fellowship of Christian Assemblies and is currently active in pastoral ministry at the Christian Pentecostal Church in Newton, MA. In addition to pastoring, he regularly writes for Vista magazine, the official publication of the International Fellowship of Christian Assemblies, and for the Pneuma Review, a publication of the Pneuma Foundation. He has ministered overseas in the countries of Indonesia and Zimbabwe. He and his wife, Cynthia, are the parents of five adult children: Carrie, Joshua, Deborah, Stephen, and Daniel. The Lathrops also have two grandchildren.

This book is the fourth of five volumes in the series "Entering into Ministry" - covering all the ministries we find in the New Testament. It is a continuation of the introductory Volume III and gives you a comprehensive description of each of the "five-fold ministries" - the apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor, and teacher. The apostle is the pioneer and architect with the largest vision and scope for the work of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Besides him the prophet sharpens the direction of the activity of the Body of Christ bringing the prophetic "right word at the right time". Together, these two ministries lay the foundation for the church. The evangelist completes the apostolic work in an area, seeing to that everyone is reached with the Gospel. The pastor oversees the local church(es) as the loving shepherd, and the teacher ensures that everyone knows and understands the Word. Together they complete the Great Commission from Jesus Christ to "make disciples of all the nations" (Mat 28:19). They are all assigned to ensure that every believer is fully equipped for ministry. As such, they are of vital importance

This book is the third of five volumes in the series "Entering into Ministry" - covering all the ministries we find in the New Testament. It introduces you to the "five-fold ministries" - the apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor, and teacher. Section 1 gives an overview of the development of the five-fold ministries in an historic and prophetic context, looking into the tradition and history of the universal Christian church - focusing on the period from the Reformation to the Pentecostal Movement. Then follows a description of the parallel history of the establishment and development of the modern nation of Israel with the noticeable restoration and growth of the offices of the five-fold ministries - the most clearly evident being the evangelist, teacher, and pastor. Section 2 is an introduction to these ministries in general, their basic classification, proper context, and the apostle Paul's main outline of their purpose in Eph 4:12-16. Finally, it portrays the main characteristics and highlights the necessary qualifications and ethical quality that should be expected for this level of ministry. Each of the five ministries will be dealt with in detail in the next separate Volume IV. Jorn Overby is born of Norwegian missionaries to encourage the ministries of apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers? Find out in this series!

Jesus revealed Himself to be the cornerstone of the church. But He has built His church, and continues to build it, through apostles and prophets, people who are empowered by the Holy Spirit. Now a leader of the New Apostolic Reformation gives us new insights into how the people called to crucial roles in the church--apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastor and teachers--must work together to fulfill their divine purpose. For the first time since the Early Church, God is harnessing apostles and prophets to fulfill the promises of His divine plan. Prepare to play your part!

I Prophecy: Breakthrough (Prophecy means to bubble up; to pour forth words abundantly; to speak by divine inspiration.) The hand of the Lord was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the Lord, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was fully of bones, and caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very man in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry. And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord God, thou knowest. Again he said unto me, Prophecy upon these bones (Ezek 37:14). God spoke to me at the end of 2010 and said, Tracy, there are some things I desire to release into this generation to cause the atmosphere to change, shift, and be realigned so that I may reflect my heavens upon the earth and reflect my likeness upon my people! Therefore, I have called you in this hour to be my mouthpiece and to prophesy and declare my glory in all the earth! Then he said to me, Prophecy and dont stop! This book is a compilation of prophecies posted on Facebook from that time forward (2010). I pray that this book opens up your heart and gives you a greater understanding of just how powerful the Word of the Lord is when spoken out of your mouth and believed in your heart. It has the ability to move a mountain, calm any storm, and change any situation.

This is a handbook for Christian ministers and aspiring ministers but, just as much, a handbook for believers in general so they can understand the various types of ministers and what each ministry gift has to offer. Speaking of which, there are five such gifts: apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor and teacher, as revealed in Ephesians 4:11-13. This shows that not every minister is a pastor who oversees a local assembly and performs weddings or funerals. We have to get away from this one-dimensional concept because it's simply not biblical. Just as important, this book reveals the main goal of ministers, which is to build people up through the ministry of the word, assist in their spiritual growth, and equip them for the works of service to which God calls them. We'll also look at what ministers are NOT supposed to do, such as abuse people spiritually, mentally or physically. Abuse is the misuse of power. When you understand these things it'll set you free from religious myths about ministers and ministry, not to mention protect ministers from burn-out and people in general from potential manipulation or mistreatment. As the Lord said, "The truth will make you free."
