Many of us have dictionaries in our homes. They provide easy access to most of the entire collection of words and their definitions in a language. However, among the very few words not included in most of these are the words of a trade, the jargon of an industry. That's where FAST SALES TRAINING CENTER comes in. A traditional dictionary won't be able to tell you what a Balloon Payment Contract is, but The A-Z's of the Auto Sales Industry will. It'll also be able to tell you what everything else means in your job in the Auto Sales Industry. The A-Z's of the Auto Sales Industry was created with the express purpose of assisting all of those who aren't comfortable with the jargon of the auto sales industry just yet. Whenever you come across a word that you're unfamiliar with, just take a peek at your copy of this book and check what it means.

Cyclists were written out of highway history in the 1920s and 1930s by the all-powerful motor lobby: Roads Were Not Built For Cars tells the real story, putting cyclists center stage again. Not that the book is only about cyclists. It will also contains lots of automotive history because many automobile pioneers were cyclists before becoming motorists. A surprising number of the first car manufacturers were also cyclists, including Henry Ford. Some carried on cycling right through until the 1940s. One famous motor manufacturing pioneer was a racing tricycle rider to his dying day.

Paul Webb is hailed by leaders in the automotive industry as a Master Sales Trainer, "second to none," and this book's practical insights and techniques have been endorsed by his top clients as "providing a challenge for readers to decide which ones to go after first.
