In 1998, many evangelicals celebrated the birth centenary of C.S. Lewis, arguably the most influential Christian apologist of our times. 1998 also marked the 30th anniversary of the book The God Who is There by Francis A. Schaeffer. Schaeffer's book of apologetics and social and historical criticism sparked many evangelicals to leave their cultural ghettos, to reject their anti-intellectualism, and to communicate the cogency of the Christian worldview to a needy world.

C.S. Lewis & Francis Schaeffer - BibleSoft

Francis August Schaeffer was an American evangelical theologian, philosopher, and Presbyterian pastor. He is best known for co-founding the L'Abri community in Switzerland with his wife Edith Schaeffer, née Seville. Opposed to theological modernism, Schaeffer promoted a more historic Protestant faith and a presuppositional approach to Christian apologetics, which he believed would answer the questions of the age. Schaeffer's wife, Edith Schaeffer, became a prolific author in her own right ...

Your well written perspective of Larry Norman engaging culture is a reminder of how Jesus shook up the status quo and challenged the norms. Even those who seek to do the same today (ex. emergent church)ruffle a lot of feathers.
