Gran Canaria Info - tourism

Welcome to Gran Canaria Island. Gran Canaria is a fantastic family destination with almost 60 kilometres of beaches and a Biosphere Reserve in the west. It's a miniature continent where you'll find things to do that make every day special. Sail out to watch whales, walk in the Canary pine forests, have fun at a water park, wander its shopping streets, visit museums, or... just relax on a beautiful beach.

Gran Canaria | You're on the Canary Islands Tourism website.

One of the keys to tourism in Gran Canaria is its impressive climate. With nearly 300 days of sunshine a year and an average temperature of 24 degrees, the island is synonymous with eternal summer. The temperature is very pleasant, so it is perfect for spending a day on the beach but also to enjoy a hiking route through the interior of the island.
